

Conditions for participation Philips Male Grooming campaign

The Insiders - August 2018

Participation in this campaign is entirely free of charge. But we need you, our Insiders, to pay attention to the following:

- Towards the end of the campaign, we will ask you to fill out a mandatory END SURVEY – here we will ask you if you would like to return the device or purchase it at a reduced Insider price (stated under the heading Debit Card/Credit Card)
- The appliance can be returned using the procedure given.

Campaign concept

Insiders in this campaign use a Philips appliance on trial for 2 weeks. This way you can experience whether the appliance meets your demands and expectations. This takes place without any obligation to buy.

At the end of the campaign, you can choose to either return or keep the device. You will be asked to indicate your choice in the end survey. We will inform you about this survey through an e-mail.

Completing the end survey is mandatory before 10/09/2018. If this survey is not completed before that date, we will assume that you wish to retain the appliance.

Registration

In order to participate in this campaign, you will need subscribe via www.theinsidersnet.com; each individual is limited to 1 account. In the event of misuse or false information, the participant can be excluded without warning. To complete your subscription, you will need to fill a questionnaire fully and truthfully.

Debit card/credit card

At the end of the campaign you decide whether you are satisfied with your Philips appliance or not. And consequently, whether you wish to keep or return it. Should you choose to keep your device, a reduced Insiders price will be offered.

If at the end of the campaign you decide to keep the Philips appliance, you will receive a link to a secure payment platform where you can transfer the amount.

This selection shall be made by The Insiders, is permanent and is non-disputable. Non-selection has no influence on any later candidacy or participation in other campaigns. This way of selection is necessary because the number of candidates is generally a lot higher than the places available.

Return or retain

At the end of the campaign you have a choice:

Option 1: Return

1. The appliance is returned, undamaged, clean and complete in the original boxes (box of the packaging, inner packaging and Insider box).
2. Indicate in the End survey that you want to return the appliance. The Insiders will create the collection order with logistics partner Ninja Van based on this.
3. The Insiders will send you Instructions on how to register your collection order and schedule a pick-up with Ninja Van.

Important! Ensure that you are at home at the agreed time of collection. Ninja Van shall only make 1 attempt at collection. If you are absent, The Insiders will assume that you want to retain the appliance after all and you will pay the reduced Insider price for it.

Option 2: Retain

If you have indicated in the end survey that you want to retain the appliance, you agree to pay the special Insider price (depending on the appliance you have received). You will make this payment no later than 7 days after receiving the payment link.

Collection

If the participant chooses to retain the appliance or does not return the appliance and prevents payment taking place, a collection agency shall be engaged and the costs involved charged to the participant. The collection costs will in this case be added to the price of the appliance. These costs cover a compensation of 10%, calculated over the outstanding amount, 8% negligence interest per annum and a file charge of 45 SGD.
